

How would you rate the writing style?

10 responses

How would you rate pace?

10 responses

Who do you think would read the book?

10 responses

How would you rate readability?

10 responses

How would you describe the book to a friend? (9 responses)

An often-surprising autobiography

An inspiring, entertaining yet real account of a life lived with no detail spared, from thoughts, feelings and experiences. Written in a way that makes you feel as if you are living the life you're reading about in a movie-style banner in your mind. Very engaging and a joy to read.

Enjoyable, entertaining and easy to read

A fun read.

Fun

Entertaining: an undemanding & engaging read covering a surprising amount of drugs, death, danger & 'devious nurkery', with thoughtful reflections on the influence of upbringing, and lots of humour. Poses interesting ideas about how the 'dyslexic brain' works.

Good anonymous autobiography.

Charmingly candid, funny in the right places, encourages you to think about taking risks!

An entertaining account of stumbling through life encountering drugs, music, girls friendships and prejudices